Standards and Expectations

Policies and Procedures

All Hospice employees are expected to follow policies, procedures and guidance as well as professional standards and guidelines.

Confidentiality / Data Protection

You should be aware of the confidential nature of the Hospice environment and/or your role. Any matters of a confidential nature, relating to patients, carers, relatives, staff or volunteers must not be divulged to any unauthorised person. You should make yourself aware of the requirements of the Data Protection Act and follow hospice procedures to ensure appropriate action is taken to safeguard confidential information.

Health and Safety

You are required to take reasonable care for your own health and safety and that of others who may be affected by your acts or omissions and you should ensure that statutory regulations, policies, codes of practice and safety and good house-keeping rules are adhered to, attending training as required.

Safeguarding and Mental Capacity Act

All employees have a responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of adults, children and young adults. It is essential that all safeguarding concerns are recognised and acted on appropriately in line with the policies and training. You must ensure you always act in the best interests of any person lacking mental capacity.

Infection Control

All employees have personal responsibility for Infection Prevention and Control practice. You should ensure you are familiar with, and comply with, all relevant Infection Control policies and training for minimising the risk of avoidable Infection.

Equality and Diversity

We recognise and encourage the valuable contribution that people from all backgrounds and experiences bring. You will treat all individuals on the basis of merit and without prejudice.

Volunteer Assistance

The Hospice has the advantage of being supported by many volunteers. If a volunteer is assigned to assist you at any time, you will still retain responsibility for the requirements of this job and at all times you will be expected to treat volunteers with respect and value their contribution.

Job Description

This job description is not intended to be restrictive and should be taken as the current representation of the broad nature of the duties involved in your job and needs to be flexible to cope with the changing needs of the job and the Hospice.

Values

Our core values guide the way we work together to care for our people and support their loved ones. Our values, which are rooted in the charity's early days, create our culture and are a combination of all our actions, behaviours and decisions. Our values are Compassion, Accountability, Respect and Equity.
