You have been offered a Golden Bond place for the Virgin Money London Marathon, 26 April 2020 by St Nicholas Hospice Care.

If you choose to accept this place please note that:

1. You must return the Golden Bond form below, with a non-returnable registration fee of £50 to us by Thursday 21 November 2019.
2. We ask you to aim to raise a suggested minimum of £2,000.
3. You agree to raise funds for St Nicholas Hospice Care only.
4. You must let Jenny Smith know of any changes in your circumstances that may prevent your participation as soon as possible.
5. Your total sponsorship should be deposited with us by Thursday 4 June 2020.
6. Cancellation policy – If you cancel, the £50 registration fee is non-refundable, sponsorship can be offered back although any fees incurred to St Nicholas Hospice Care from online donation pages or equivalent will be deducted first. If St Nicholas Hospice Care or the event organiser cancels, the registration fee and all sponsor money will be returned.
7. All participants must be age 18 or over on Sunday 26 April.
8. Places are non-transferrable.

Please note:

- All runners need to collect their running number from London Excel the week leading up to the Marathon. It may be possible to arrange between you to share transport, or in certain circumstances to pick other runners' numbers up for them.
- It is your responsibility to travel to and from the event for the time allocated to you.
- You will receive more information from the event organisers once St Nicholas Hospice Care has entered you on the London Marathon Events console and your registration is complete.
- More information, and London Marathon Events' general conditions of entry can be found at www.virginmoneylondonmarathon.com

The stuff we need back, please!
